Principal fisheries: Brook trout

Round Pond is located south of Big Squaw Mountain. The pond has no major inlet, but an outlet flows west into Black Brook. The pond's shoreline is mostly undeveloped.

Water quality in Round Pond is good for coldwater gamefish. Brook trout utilize the shoreline for spawning and produce sufficient numbers to provide a fishery. Growth is good with only light competition from two minnow species. The pond is not stocked.

Round Pond is accessible via series of gravel logging roads east of the Indian Pond Road. The pond is open to fly fishing only in the summer and closed to fishing in the winter months. See the lawbook for additional regulations.
